Prayer part 12

The Mass as prayer

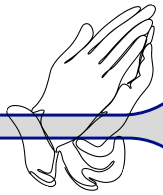

Often we think of the Mass as a ritual, a series of prayers said by the priest, or something we do as Catholics. I want to invite you to see the Mass from a new lens. For the next four parts of this series, I am going to focus on the Mass as a prayer and then the Sacraments as prayer.

Too often our experience of the Mass as a prayer is that the priest prays the Mass and we watch from the pews. The 2nd Vatican Council was very intentional about bringing back the vibe of the Mass as felt by the earliest Christians. We know from the first centuries of Christianity that when the people gathered for Mass, they understood that they were active participants of the Mass. The earliest texts that we have show that the people were in a dialogue with the bishop. If we look at the eastern Catholic liturgies, we experience a really strong sense of dialogue between the priest and the people. The same applies to our Mass. The parts that the people and the priest say are not just ways to keep people awake or give us a part. These parts are a dialogue. The priest speaks to the people and the people speak to the priest. This dialogue mirrors the dialogue of the marriage between Jesus and his Church. As a married couple grows in love and knowledge of each other through talking and sharing life, so does the Church come to know Jesus and Jesus communicates himself to the Church in a dialogue. This first aspect of the Mass as a dialogue shows the prayerful nature of the Mass. We are not just celebrating a ritual, we are speaking with the voice of the Church at prayer with her God.

I want to take this dialogue one step further. Our common experience of this dialogue in the Mass is as a group of people who have memorized these responses and rotely speak them. Yet, each response is more than a line of the Mass. These prayers guide us to understand how to pray to God, what to say, and to enter into a deeper and more meaningful dialogue with our God. Take for instance one of the most important, and ancient, dialogues in the Church. "The Lord be with you, and with your Spirit. Lift up your hearts, we lift them up to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God, it is right and just." What are we saying and doing? This part introduces one of the most important parts of the Mass: The Eucharistic Prayer. In preparation for the re-presentation of the Lord's Passion and death, i.e. the Last Supper, we are invited to join into this event with this dialogue. "The Lord be with you": the words used to announce the Resurrection and as a sign of the Lord' presence. "And with your spirit": be the priest we need, allow the power of Christ's spirit to dwell here with us, may the Spirit who rose Jesus from the dead show himself for us now. "Lift up your heart": may our love for God be strengthened by this event, may our hearts seek the Lord, may our hearts rise with the risen Lord. "We lift them up to the Lord": we are ready, our hearts are with God, we have prepared ourselves for this moment. "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God": this entire event reminds us to be grateful, our prayers are of gratitude for what God has done, love grows when we are grateful. our duty is to praise the Lord, our joy is to be with our God, we want God to be present to us now.

I encourage you to take some time and ponder and pray over the responses we say in the Mass. Each of them can help us understand prayer, guide us in our dialogue with God, and enrich the Mass as a prayerful experience. More on this soon.

Hospital Communion Ministry

With concern for your privacy, should you be admitted to St. Peter's Health, you will be invited to disclose your religious affiliation and your interest in having a member of Saint Mary Catholic Community contact you during your hospital stay. If you'd like to receive Communion from a Pastoral Care Minister or Father Cody Williams, it is important that you answer the questions that enable the hospital Chaplain to contact Saint Mary for you. The nurse completing your intake will ask if you'd like to visit with the Chaplain, Kim Pepper (a member of Our Lady of the Valley Parish), or disclose your religious affiliation and will then inquire if you'd like someone from your faith community to visit you. The Pastoral Care Ministry of Saint Mary Catholic Community would love to provide you with comfort during your hospital stay.
Please let the hospital staff know if a visit would be helpful for you.

If you'd like to receive Communion from a Pastoral Care Minister or Father Cody Williams, please contact the office at 406-442-5268.
